

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Deloris J. Alford-Norfolk of Florissant has distinguished herself twice in life, first as a caseworker and case manager supervisor with the Missouri Division of Family Services and secondly as the officer manager for a forty-three unit senior apartment complex for Mercy Seat Baptist Church; and

Whereas, on July 10, 2005, Pastor James Brown, Sr., and the Mercy Seat family will honor Deloris Alford-Norfolk for her unparalleled contributions to increasing the quality of life in the area; and

Whereas, Deloris Alford-Norfolk is a 1950 graduate of Vashon High School who first became employed with the federal government as a keypunch operator; and

Whereas, Deloris Alford-Norfolk then accepted the duties and responsibilities of Employment Security Officer with the State Employment Office before moving to the Missouri Division of Family Services in 1960 as a caseworker; and

Whereas, after retiring from state employment, Deloris Alford-Norfolk was recruited by her pastor to serve as Office Manager at the Mercy Seat apartments adjacent to the church; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily endeavors in order to acknowledge momentous occasions in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri residents as Deloris Alford-Norfolk:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the fifty-one years of dedicated service so generously contributed by Deloris Alford-Norfolk to her church and community and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Deloris J. Alford-Norfolk of Florissant, Missouri.
